

OPTIONAL WEEKEND ACTIVITIES (FEES APPLY)

Weekend activities to Australia's famous theme parks at the Gold Coast give students opportunities to meet more teens from other GV campuses. Other options include Fraser Island and Australia Zoo. Activities are offered at least once per month.

GROUP STUDY TOURS

(SUNSHINE COAST, BYRON BAY AND BRISBANE)

As one of Australia's largest and best-known group tour providers, Global Village can design high-quality programs combining English language classes and recreational or study activities for delivery either on or off campus.

The majority of group tour programs feature language study in the mornings, either in a closed group or integrated into the general school population, followed by a choice of sporting and cultural afternoon activities and optional weekend excursions.

Programs are offered year-round, generally lasting between one and four weeks, and cater for students aged 10 and above with in groups of all sizes.

For further details and to request sample group tour itineraries, please contact the Junior Program Director.
